

White Chocolate Lemonade Cups

INGREDIENTS: (makes 8-10 cups)

2 bags of Wilton's Candy Melts in bright white.

1/2 package (4 oz) of Philadelphia Cream Cheese (softened to room temperature)

1/2 packet of Kool Aid drink mix (any flavor- if you use a lemonade, add it to taste, as it will be more tart than the other flavors)

1 (7 oz) jar of Jet-Puffed Marshmallow Creme

1 tub (8 oz) of Cool Whip (thawed in refrigerator, divided)

Fun sprinkles

DIRECTIONS:

Melt Candy Melts in microwave in 30 second increments, stirring in between until melted and smooth.

If desired, drop a few sprinkles into each cavity of the mold (that is how I got the colors at the rim of the "glass").

Carefully spoon melted white chocolate into molds (I placed the melts in a zip-top bag, zipped it shut tight, clipped a corner and piped it into the molds to make sure I got it all the way to the bottom without bubbles).

Tap on countertop and set (level!) in freezer for 10-15 minutes until hard.

Pop cups out of molds and set aside.

While cups are hardening, make filling by creaming together lemonade/other unsweetened drink mix flavor with cream cheese.

Fold in marshmallow and then fold in 1/2 of Cool Whip until smooth.

You could spoon this into the little cups, but I piped the filling in (again- to make it easy to get all the way to the bottom of each cup).

Spoon remainder of Cool Whip into a zip-top bag that has been fitted with a large decorating tip. Zip it tightly shut and pipe swirls on top of each cup.

Add sprinkles (and I added a little bit of a straw to each one too, because....soooo cute! :)

Enjoy!
